

SAVE THE DATES

2013 Merrimon Lecture & Health Justice Conference

Friday, October 4, 2013: 4:30- 6pm in Rosenau Auditorium

The Merrimon Lecture: Ruth R. Faden, PhD, MPH

Philip Franklin Wagley Professor of Biomedical Ethics and Director, Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics

Saturday, October 5, 2013: 9am - 5:30pm in Hyde Hall

“Comparing Approaches to Health Inequalities and Justice: A Dialogue on Theory, Method, and (Inter)-Disciplinarity

Conference Speakers:

Paula Braveman, MD, MPH

Professor of Family and Community Medicine
Director, Center on Social Disparities in Health
University of California, San Francisco

Paul Brodwin, PhD

Professor of Anthropology
University of Wisconsin-
Milwaukee

Adjunct Associate Professor of Bioethics and Medical Humanities
Medical College of Wisconsin

Debra DeBruin, PhD

Director, Center for Bioethics
Associate Professor of Medicine
University of Minnesota Medical School

Sarah Horton, PhD

Assistant Professor of Anthropology
University of Colorado, Denver

Rosalina James, PhD

Acting Assistant Professor of Bioethics and Humanities
University of Washington

Carla Keirns, MD, PhD, Msc

Director, Program on the History of Medicine
Assistant Professor of Medicine and Preventive
Medicine
Stony Brook University

Paul Kelleher, PhD

Assistant Professor of Medical History
& Bioethics
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Nicholas King, PhD

Director, Measurement, Ethics, and
Decision-making Collaborative
Assistant Professor of Social Studies of Medicine
McGill University

Eva Feder Kittay, PhD

Distinguished Professor of Philosophy
Stony Brook University

Barbara Koenig, PhD

Professor of Social and Behavioral Sciences
Institute for Health & Aging
University of California, San Francisco

Carolyn Rouse, PhD

Professor of Anthropology
Princeton University

Jennifer Prah Ruger, PhD

Associate Professor of Public Health,
Medicine, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
Adjunct Associate Professor of Law
Yale University

Janet Shim, PhD

Associate Professor of Social and Behavioral
Sciences
Institute for Health & Aging
University of California, San Francisco

Co-sponsored by:

Center for Bioethics, School of Medicine Merrimon Lectureship, College of Arts and Sciences,
Institute for Arts and Humanities, Moral Economies of Medicine Working Group, Department of Anthropology,
Department of Social Medicine, Center for Health Equity Research, Department of Philosophy, and Parr Center for Ethics

At the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill